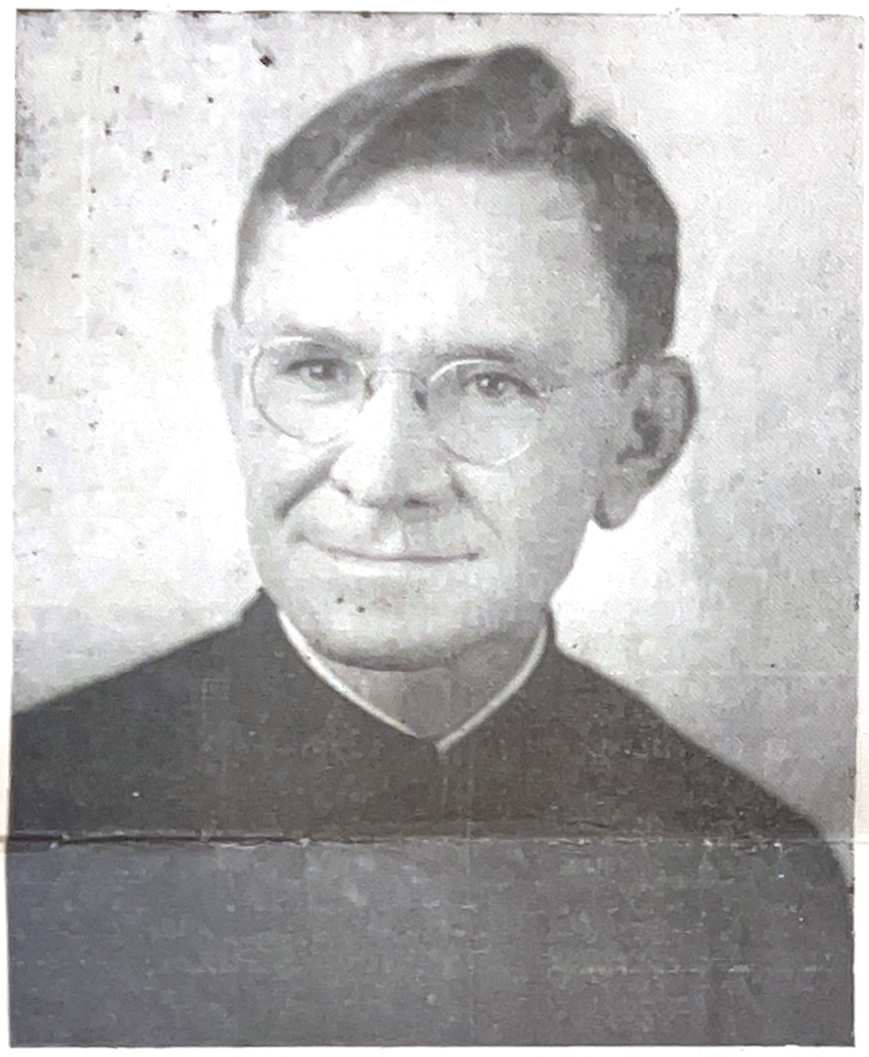
DAD'S DAY AND HOMECOMING, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 13

HEADS CATHOLIC HIGH



BROTHER CASIMIR

ALL INVITED TO HOMECOMING

Brother Peter has issued the following message regarding homecoming: "Due to the stress of work it will not be possible to issue individual invitations to Homecoming. This is your invitation. McGill of Mobile will be the football opponent that day . . . Plan now to be with us at Saint Stanislaus on October 13."

This is to be the second homecoming since the termination of the War. Many Alumni who were in the armed forces last year were unable to attend the first one. To some this will be the first opportunity in five years to return to their Alma Mater and meet their old school mates.

This year McGill has the greatest array of talent in the history of the school. The Rocks are expected to be at their fighting best. The game promises to be one of the best played in our stadium.

A large turn out is expected but everyone will be easily accommodated in our modernized stadium.

Alumni: Since this is the only form of invitation to be issued, the Rock-A-Chaw staff requests that you convey this message to your old fellow students and friends.

NINETY-THIRD SESSION FINDS RECORD STUDENT BODY AT ST. STANISLAUS

More Than A Hundred Boys Refused Admittance For Lack of Room

The air around the campus of St. Stanislaus is once again filled with the resonant voices of boys. The ninety-third session is underway with a total of 176 day-scholars and 264 boarders. In all the history of St. Stanilslaus no other session has exceeded this enrollment. Demands for accommodations forced the register to refuse more than a hundred applicants.

As the years flow by, The School of Character attains more popularity and fame. One can not help noticing the great achievements.

We can almost say that Stanislaus is a cosmopolitan site in that many States and South American countries are respresented. These include Louisiana, Mississippi, Kentucky, Alabama, Georgia, Virginia, Texas, Florida, Washington, Ohio, Illinois, New York, California, South Carolina, and Tennessee. Students not from the States come from Mexico, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, the Bahama Islands, Panama, Cuba, and the Dominican Republic.

If one were to walk around the grounds he would hear at least two foreign languages being spoken. Then the conversation could readily be turned to English.

The spirit of old Stanislaus boys is to cheer up any new comer who might begin to long for home. However most boys are already accustomed to their new environment.

FOOTBALL STADIUM IS MODERNIZED

(By Armand Guiterrez)

The Stanislaus Stadium has undergone a complete change. On the east side permanent cypress stands have been erected. On the west, in order that the baseball diamond remain unobstructed, movable bleachers are set up. When the baseball season begins, these can be easily moved. They belong to the Merchant Marine Cadet School of Henderson Point which will play its games here.

The seating capacity is 2500. This school stadium on the coast can boast scool stadium on the coast can boast of accommodating.

Between the bleachers and playing field there is a side line of forty five feet.

The best seats are reserved for the Side Lines Club. They are on the fifty yard line. Next to them is the section for the band.

Illumination for the night games is provided by the 48 new lights. There are eight posts with six lights on each. These posts are located behind the stands, four on each side of the field.

On the Southern part of the stadium there are locker rooms and showers. Rest rooms for the spectators were also built. On the roof stands the new score board.

Brother Felician is to be heartily congratulated on the skillful architectual and manual work he performed all summer in order that this project be completed.

A LETTER

To the Loyal St. Stanislaus Alumni, Parents, Students and Friends:

Once again I greet you from the President's Office at Saint Stanislaus.

I am happy to be back with you. I pledge myself, in reassuming your leadership, to keep Saint Stanislaus on its plane as The School of Character and in the front ranks of Catholic Education in the South.

Now as always success will depend on the hearty and full cooperation of all. Do your part and pray that I may worthily fulfill my part.

BROTHER PETER.

DEDICATION

The Rock-A-Chaw Staff humbly takes this opportunity to dedicate this issue of the school Publication to Brothers Peter and Casimir, incoming and outgoing Presidents of St. Stanislaus, respectively.

In the name of all the students we extend a most Hearty Welcome to Brother Peter. His winning personality, disciplinary firmness, and supervisory activities have already gained for him the respect and esteem of all.

We bid Fond Farewell to Brother Casimir. It would be presumptuous to extol either his person or his multiple achievements . . . Suffice it to say that his two-year tenure as President of St. Stanislaus will go down in the history of this institution as the period of its greatest development. We wish for him continued success as President of Catholic High in Baton Rouge, La.

BROTHER PETER RETURNS AS PRESIDENT OF STANISLAUS REPLACING BROTHER CASIMIR

DEPARTING TRIBUTE TO BROTHER CASIMIR

As a departing tribute to Brother Casimir we dedicate this column and will give a resume of his contributions and achievements.

In the year 1944 the student body took the I. Q. test as did every other school in Mississippi and under Brother Casimir, St. Stanislaus rated first in scholastic work over all other schools in Mississippi.

During Brother Casimir's regime social functions and sodality dances hit an all time high. There were more given than in any other year in the history of Stanislaus.

Also, he had new laundry equipment installed for better outcome and service of clothes. At the time he added a new dry cleaning building to the laundry. These additions made the Stanislaus Laundry a fully equipped plant.

Brother Casimir instigated the construction of new football bleachers and promoted the installation of new lights and poles for the football field. He also had the best baseball field built that can be seen on the coast.

The most important accomplishment was the restoration of all-around Sports dropped during the war. The Stanislaus Spirit was then restored to each individual who called himself a student because the one for all and the all for one spirit was again found in each boy.

The basketball team having entered the semi-finals in the Missis-

WELCOME

IN keeping with the age old tradition of St. Stanislaus we, the Rock-A-Chaw Staff of '46-'47 take this opportunity to welcome back the old boys and to extend a hand of welcome to all the new students. Here we are just one big happy family. Our motto is: "All for one and one for all."

After a very restful summer vacation it is not easy for a boy to buckle down to school work and study. We feel that this year will be an enjoyable and successful one if we all apply ourselves to our studies and make the best of everything. So let's get down to business and show our true Stanislaus spirit.—MORRIS NELSON:

JUST ANOTHER YEAR?

NOW that you have secured a firm grip on the run of things, don't make the mistake of settling back, stretching your legs and in general, waiting patiently for the end of just another year. If this is your idea, you can chalk off a wasted year.

"Not to go forward is to go backwards" is a hackneyed expression which has become such because of its absolute truth. This axiom may be well made the guiding light of this school year. If you dont resolve to accomplish a little more during this session then you have reached the stagnant stage—a period which allows only for decay.

You can always find room for improvement. Rapid strides are impossible and very disappointing. Aim at slow and patient development. It will be as the growth of an oak—slow, but when completed, solid.

Look first to your spiritual life. A holy man is a happy man.. More can be accomplished when the soul is at peace. No man is strong enough or wise enough when he depends on his own power. He is doomed to very limited service when he can no longer look up and recognize one greater. Severe tests will come sooner or later. If you have only yourself to depend on, soon you will be lost. However, trials can be shouldered bravely when you know that Our Lord is there to help.

You can expect trials from school itself. This is the time for you to forget your past troubles and woes. They are gone, so bury them. Start from scratch and see to it that your conduct will make others forget any faults of your past. Don't let any subject defeat you. Remember the words of an old mathematician, "What one fool has done, any fool can do."

Rounding off your improvements for the year is your social life. This doesn't mean brushing up on your vocal chords or your dancing. It simply means to make yourself agreeable. It means mixing with one and all. This can be best done by participating in as many activities as possible. You will learn how to get along with others. In short, be the true Christian Gentleman.

Rambling Review

(Gutnel)

GET in the rumble seat and let's ramble through the news. . . There is no need to tell the Physics and English IV classes that band practice has begun. . . No more "Standing Room Only" for us; new bleachers have been constructed at the stadium . . . Brother Peter was elected president of the Southern A. A. U. . . The Sunday night show is a privilege show. . . . The Rock-A-Chaw room is now room A. . ..We're all wet; the showers have been repaired. . . The "Blue Room" is now the "Green Room." . . The campus is infested with fleas and flies, 155 of them. . . . Have you noticed the new super, no foot rest, no arm rest, and no slouching desks? . . . Don't shoot bull—shoot pool. The Billiard Hall is opening??? . . . Clothes make the man, and the study hall points. . . Fear sand in your shoes no mo'; the asphalt driveway is on the go. . . It's nice to sing for joy, but nicer to sing for the Glee Club which is now being organized. . . Let the grass grow under your feet; stay off it when it's wet. . . Oh, where, oh where are the locks? . . Too bad Brother Casimir can't see our Sunday rains . . . Nowadays, one has to get in line to break in line. . . We'll be ridin' in style when the new busses arrive. . . Our Lady's Sodality will again sponsor socials.

ROCK ORCHESTRA SET FOR GALA SEASON

By Norman and Norbert Carnovale

The St. Stanislaus Orchestra seems to be in fine shape and with plenty of work and cooperation will again be outstanding along the coast. Last year the orchestra was rated as one of ten best school orchestras in the South. It made a fine showing in the Look National Swing Band Contest which was held in New Orleans last year.

The members of this year's swing band are: 1st Alto Sax, Norman Carnovale; 3rd Alto Sax, Marion Wolfe; 2nd Tenor Sax, Arthur Scafide, Jr.; 4th Tenor Sax, J. T. LaNasa; 1st Trumpet, Joseph Fasold; 2nd Trumpet, Norbert Carnovale; 3rd Trumpet, Anthony Carter; 1st Trombone, Jack Dresher; Drums, "Johnny" Bonck; Bass, Leon Patten. These players are outstanding musicians picked from St. Stanislaus' fine music department

Next year, the orchestra hopes to enter a seven piece combo in the Look Contest

With Brother Romuald's assistance, the orchestra this year expects to be rated the finest in the state.

CONFUSION FOLLOWS OPENING OF SCHOOL

This year at St. Stanislaus is blessed (?) with one of the largest student bodies in its history. This is a sign of its progress. However, a few complications have set in.

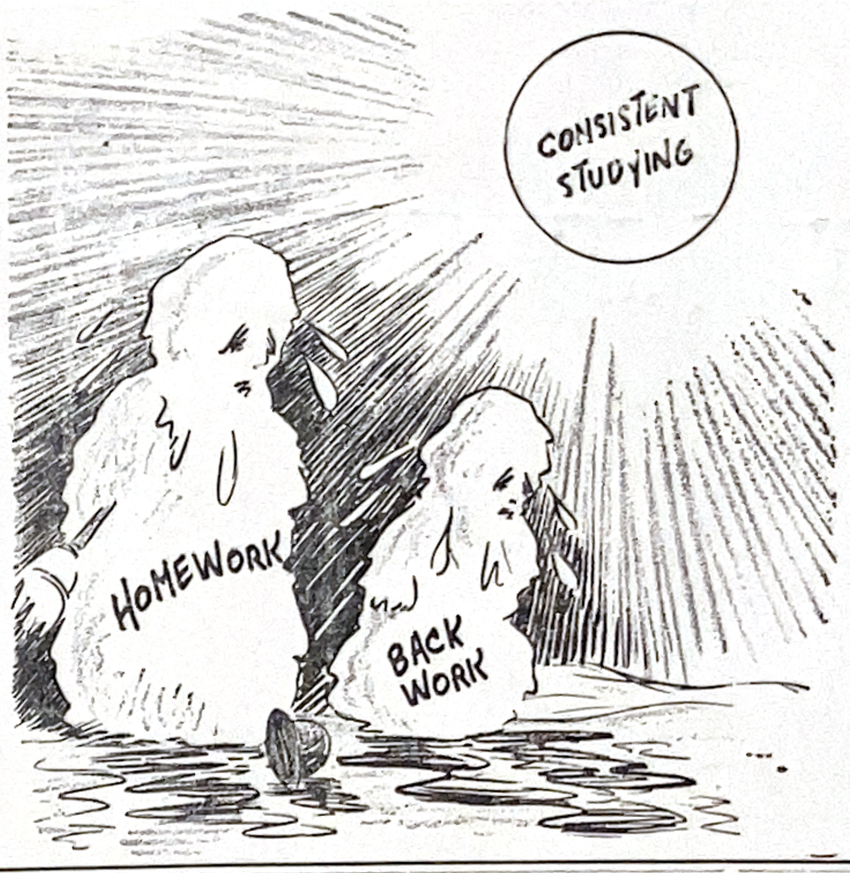
The seniors who have the largest class in history are a little confused. One who was trying to get into a Solid Geometery class ended up taking seventh grade arithmetic and is still trying to get out.

Some of the day scholars are "messed" up too. They couldn't seem to match homework with their nights out so something had to suffer.

The boarders have had a few difficulties of their own. Some of them took three weeks to find out that they had to be on and at the appointed time in order to obtain their clothes from the clothes room. Result—they wore the same clothes in the meantime and turned them inside out when they wanted to start over. They have now learned their lesson and see to it that they are present when it is time to obtain their laundry.

Most of these difficulties have been ironed out, however, and the students have settled down to the "old grind."

Excessive cheerfulness is frequently very obnoxious.



BAND OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

(Morris Nelson)

The band this year did not waste any time in organizing its officers and personnel. The officers were elected by ballot on September 7 by all the students who had been in the band for one year.

The qualifications for an officer in the band are: At least one year and a High School student in good standing. We, the band members, will respect and obey our officers and do what ever is assigned us by them.

The officers elected were, Captain First Lieutenant, Second Lieutenant, Sergeant and Three Corporals. When the ballot for the office of Captain was counted, C. J. Piazza had been chosen by a unanimous vote. For the office of First Lieutenant, Toby Scafide was chosen. Benard Farr received the rank of Second Lieutenant and the title of Sergeant went to Dickie Curran. The three Corporals elected were, J. T. LaNasa, J. H. Bonck and Don White.

These boys were elected to these positions in our band because of their character, sincerity, musicianship, and loyalty to the organization. All of the boys chosen as officers have been in the band for four, five and even six years.

The boys are beginning to get back in the grove of practice. The practice periods during school hours have been designated and some music has been given out so that they will have something to play. In the afternoon after school the band members go to the music hall for one hour's rehearsal for the betterment of the organization.

In the near future Brother Romuald believes that the band will be advanced enough to give a public concert. His ambition is that the band will again receive superior rating at the contest this year in Jackson This great ambition should be the ambition of every member of our band. We made quite a name for ourselves at the contest last year by capturing two superior ratings. We are striving to do the same this year.

Last year the band went to as many football games as possible to cheer the team along and we hope that this year the new tradition will continue. Also the band went to New Orleans and marched in two of the Mardi-Gras parades. We hope to continue in this manner during the present year.

We are sure that the band this year will progress steadily and be a great success.

CAMPUS TO HAVE ASPHALT DRIVEWAY

Construction of an asphalt driveway has begun on the Stanislaus campus. The driveway will begin at the Union Street entrance and will go over the old driveway around the central playground. It will be at least twenty feet wide. The driveway will help to keep the sand out of our shoes and the dust out of our noses. And when it rains, which it seldom does, the new driveway will put an end to mud puddles, of which we had quite a few. This improvement will be greatly appreciated and will add to the convenience of all.

WHO'S WHO

By D. White

The first student on the list of seniors of class '47 to be in this column is Richard Alba. Dick has been a boarder at Stanislaus for the past four years. During these four years he has taken part in many school activities. He played on the Junior Football Team for two years and also the Junior Basketball Team for the same length of time. Dick was also on Brother Adalbert's boat crew for a year and during that time did splendid work in preparing the boats for the school. This brings us to the fact hat his favorite pastime is sailing. After he leavas us in June, Dick intends to go to Loyola for a pre Med course. Good Luck, Dick!

Next on our list and by the way a boarder also, is Roland Bahan. Roland, at the end of his last year will have been here for three years. During the past two years he has been in the Sodality Glee Club and he says that as soon as it is organized he will be there again. At present he is helping at the football stadium to prepare it for the many games we will have this coming year. His hobby is photography which is very interesting. His favorite pastime is sailing. Roland was on the Rock-A-Chaw Staff last year.

Going down our list of names we come across a well known boy, Joe Bailey. Joe has shown fine sportsmanship in the boxing ring for his first two years here, but he says that he doesn't think that he will go out for boxing this year. Whatever he does, though, we know it will be worth while. His hobby is collecting stamps, but his pastime is pool. We hope that our pool room opens soon so that Joe can show the new boys some tricks of the game. After he leaves these sacred grounds, Joe intends to study Chemistry.

Next to come to is Sammy Blanchard who is, as we all know, a boarder and veteran of three years at St. Stanislaus. Sam has played on the school's Junior Football Team for the past two years. If you had looked around during the past years you would have seen him on many of the working crews of the school. Sam is the organizer of Slick Sam and His Greasy Boys."

* * *

And last for this issue is J. H. Bonck who has attended Stanislaus for seven years, six as a boarder and one as a day scholar. Johnny has been in the band since his first year here and has shown wonderful work on the drums. He is also an officer of the band and takes his duties seriously. Sailing is his favorite pastime. By the way, he has a sailing boat of his own. He has been an active member of the Glee Club. J. H. has a very large stamp collection which he works on in his spare time. He is also an excellent swimmer and showed his ability in the swimming meet held at L. S. U. this summer. He won one race and came out second in another. He is head of the Sodality Social Committee and also master of ceremonies at the socials. He was a member of the championship Junior Basketball Team.

TINY ROCKS PREP FOR YEARLY TUSSLE

By Richard Deslattes

Again this year miniature elevens will scramble over the gridiron. Indeed the future may hold grid fame for many of the hundred forty-four young hopefuls who have registered with Brother Leonard as candidates for the Fleas and Flies. The captains and teams have not yet been selected, but aside from that everything is in readiness. Games will be played every week; the series will end with the annual game between the Fleas and Flies at Christmas time. This game is played at the St. Stanislaus Stadium. The proceeds from this game are turned over to Brother Peter for his Christmas tree fund. This fund is used to buy toys, candy and gifts for the needy children of Bay St. Louis and vicinity. Our wholehearted support of this project will be greatly appreciated by Brother Peter. The following are the names of the candidates for the Tiny Rocks of '46:

Rock-A-Chaws Primed For Opening Encounter—Condition and Spirit Are Excellent

(Hubert Campbell)

The Rocks will meet the Crusaders one of the most powerful teams on its schedule. Aloysius has always been one of the contenders for the state crown and this year is no exception.

With Roy Hoffman gone, the city team will depend greatly on Stevens, Goff and Piper. All are experienced and can gilve any team trouble. Bowling over opposition for these backs is a line averaging over 190 lbs.

Knowing what opposition to expect, Coach Pete Burge and his able assistant, Brother John, have taken pains to round off the rough spots on the Rock-A-Chaw's lighter team.

The spirit of the team has been tops. Scrimmages have been lively and enthusiastic with plenty of fight and drive. From what I've seen, I feel sorry for our opponents.

Bolstering our forward wall will be the following players: At ends there are Raymond Carrio and Ray Benvenutti two seasoned players. After shuffling several players in order to fill the left tackle position, Pete Burge shifted Sturgeon Lachaussee rom end to the inside post The transfer strengthens the left side of the line. Spurgeon stands over six feet and weighs 175 lbs. During his two years of playing he has shown rapid improvement and has proven a bulwark on defense. Holding down the right tackle post is Louis Mogabgab a veteran of last year's team. Taking over the guard positions are veteran Anthony Carter and newcomer, Wallace Burns .

At center, Bill Hodgson will continue his stellar performance. He has had two years experience which will serve the team to advantage this season.

The backfield duties will be handled by Robert Friis at full, Joseph O'Donohoe at quarter, and Teddy Millette and Wallace Bontemps at halfback positions.

CHAUCER GROANS AS SENIORS COMPOSE

The Senior Class made an attempt to write Ballads in their English class last week. Some of them were pretty good. In the whole class, Edward Caire had the best of all the poems.

The following is Ed Caire's Ballad:

The sunshone in the distant sky,
The Bay seemed made of glass,
And then a boat came by to make
The beauty unsurpassed.

There were also quite a few other attempts and some of them were good also. Here are a few that we dare to publish:

There is a girl in back of me,
Whose eyes were big and round,
I looker at her, for she was cute,
And she said turn around.

J. Straughan.

This poem i sthe one that took second place.

There's a mouse in the house running round the room.
There's a girl on a chair holding her dress and a broom.
The mouse is at rest, cause he knows she's distressed.
If she hits him with the broom, she'll have to drop her dress.

This poem was written by Don Poston.
by W. Burns.

Here is another well written poem

His great ambition was to see
And find a maiden fair.
He met a hag and married her,
A homely millionaire.

The last of these great poems by the Senior class is one by Ray Richard. This is the greatest work of anyone in the class. Get ready because it is really good.

My love she has gone away,
My love she are went to stay,
Her won't go to I,
Me won't come to she,
Don't it awful!

WORK IS KEYNOTE TO SUCCESS IN 8TH

My, my how time does fly. Why, it seems like only yesterday that I was telling you "So long" for the summer vacation. As you see, I'm back at my old job again. Merely to say that school has started does not convey the meaning I wish to bring to you. Let's see, how about, "School has commenced, with gusto, enthusiasm, a real bang." I think you get what I mean. You know what, I actually believe that the majority of us will learn something this year. Don't get me wrong; I don't mean to say we haven't accomplished much in the previous years spent here, but I think this year will put the finishing touces to our grammar school and prepare us for our entrance into high scool.

I could summarize our day in school in one word—work. I'm not kidding either, just walk in at any time of any day and you'll find the whole gang busy at their books. And what gets me is that no one seems to mind it. Maybe it's because we feel like we're getting something out of it.

Don't let this out, but I think our teacher, Brother Wallace, leans towards English and Arithmetic. Take it from me, those are the two subjects we do need a lot of. Our English notebooks are rapidly filling up and only three weeks of school finished too. I always did think that there was a lot to English, but say, not that much.

The recitations of the day are recited in line. I should say, in two lines. The boys still first in line on Saturday are awarded the privilege of being off of the written homework over Sunday. Speaking of homework, reminds me of this. Brother has a nice little scheme in order to get us to do our best. We have two homework books, one which is turned in and marked by Brother every day. Anyone acquiring seven straight "A's" in one book is entitled to get off homework one night. All you have to do to get an 'A" is to have perfect homework for that day. We like the system lots, and you should see the excellent results Brother gets in this line.

We always finish off the week's work with some little "quizes" as Brother calls them. Don't let that word fool you though, they're still tests to us, for points. They're a check up to see if we have mastered what Brother has been trying to teach us for that week.

Guess, that about covers the little news for the first few weeks of school. I'm sure if you were in our room you wouldn't have the least doubt that the best class in school is the Eighth-B.

ADDITIONS AND IMPROVEMENTS

There are three Typing Classes in progress at present. Brother Timothy really has his hands full with boys and typewiter keys.

Then there are the ambitious students who are studying the lines and curves of shorthand during their study period. It will give them a boost in the future as well as now. They can thank Brother Adalbert for this privilege.

Six new clocks contributed by Mr. Joseph Fasold adorn the walls of the three study halls and science rooms.

Brother Peter's office has been remodeled. New wall paper is displayed and the floor has been tiled.

SENIOR SODALITY GETS UNDERWAY

(By Armand Guitterez)

The Senior Sodality of Our Lady held its initial meeting for this year on Saturday the 21st. Brother Felician, who remains moderator, reviewed the purpose of the organization. Stating it briefly it is: To foster individual sanctificaton, devotion to Mary, and Catholic action.

The officers of the current year were elected in the last two meetings of last year's session. Richard Curran was chosen Prefect. The others are: Robert Johnson, Vice-Prefect; Joseph Laughlin, Secretary; and Robert LeBlanc, Treasurer. No abler group could have been chosen.

The Sodality put on probation all non-member Juniors and Seniors who wished to join. During this probation they will study and follow the rules of the Sodality. Those who fulfill the obligations prescribed will be received on December the 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

The 'Socials," which have become so popular, will once again be sponsored by the Sodality. The Glee Club will also be continued. It was pointed out that any Stanislaus student may join it.

The meetings will be conducted on Saturdays as in the past.

STANISLAUS STATE TO BE FORMED

With a view of introducing partial student government, elections were held at Saint Stanislaus. Fifteen men will compose a student council. These boys will make new rules for the school which will be subject to Brother Peter's approval.

They will be elected for a term of six to eight weeks. The term of office will be decided by the boys who were elected for the first term. They will also decide how often they will meet.

Six boys were chosen from the Senior class, four from the Junior class, three from the Sophomore class and two from the Freshman division. The following boys were chosen to represent the St. Stanislaus student body:

In the Senior class: Robert Johnson, Joe O'Donoghue, J. H. Bonck, Graham Dacovich, Robert Buford and Edward Caire.

In the Junior class: Bobby LeBlanc, J. D. Abadie, Jack Carter and Joseph Fasold.

In the Sophomore class: Frank Dominique, Teddy Millette, and Walter Egan.

In the Freshman class: Ursin Laurent and Chapman Stewart.

Learn of the skillful; he that teaches himself hath a fool for a teacher.

MISS ELLIS RESUMES DUTIES AS NURSE

This year will make the sixth year that our nurse, Miss Thelma Ellis, has been at Stanislaus. We believe and are sure that she takes the very best care of the boys when they are ill. Even though it may hurt when she swabs one's throat, it is for one's own good that she does it. No matter what you may be afflicted with you can always get relief from Miss Ellis. If you do not know her you are to a disadvantage for she is the only one here who can give you the right medicine and make you well. You should really get to know Miss Ellis, because when you do know her you will always like her.

When you go over to the Infirmary sick and have fever you are put in a bed and given the best of care. She is aways there and if you need anything she will give you whatever you need provided it is essential to your recovery. Of course you can write letters if you are really sick to tell your parents that you are ill and are in the care of a good nurse.

We hope that in future years the infirmary will be left in the competent hands of Miss Ellis.

MISTAKES

I've made mistakes just the same as you,
The same mistakes that all mortals do,
Just little mistakes, and big mistakes,
Bringing us little and big heartaches,
Bringing us sorrow and sighs and tears,
Some of them shadowing all our years.
Turning life's song to a sad refrain—
Let's try to forget them and start again!
Let's turn away from the yesteryears
And cease our sighing and dry our tears.
What's done is done, and we can't turn back—
Let's bravely start down the future's track
And sternly strive to efface, erase
Mistakes we've made, and with smiling face
Do what we can to help other men
Who've made mistakes to take heart again.

People who travel for pleasure these days must be pretty miserable at home.

The learned fool writes his nonsense in better language than the unlearned, but still 'tis nonsense.

It's the people who just call to say hello who hang around till you're nuts.
